SELLER REPRESENTATION

As a listing agent, our goal is to be concentrated on presentation, responsiveness and negotiation. Our marketing process works to reach the intended audience utilizing traditional methods as well as new technology to stay current.

BENEFITS OF USING A BROKER

DETERMINING PRICE

Our approach to determining price is focused not only on what the market will bear, but how to position you for the future.

NEGOTIATIONS

We aim to keep the deal intact, keeping all parties engaged until an agreement is met.

LISTINGS

Activity drives activity. The best way to sell a property is by maximizing the number of calls, emails, and showings. Given NAI's leading position in the market, we receive the most inquiries and sell more property than any other commercial firm in Montana.

TEAM

By utilizing a team approach, there is always someone who is available to answer your questions and meet your needs. We understand the demands of commercial real estate and provide you with access to an entire team of uniquely qualified individuals to meet their needs.

ADVISING

We utilize our vast comp database and experience to advise our clients on pricing and closing a successful transaction.
